Kentucky is the worst governed state in the Union—Courier-Journal.

MORGAN and Rockefeller hold the first mortgage on Wall street and your Uncle Sam'll only hold the bag.

Officials chosen by fraud and violence are incapable of enforcing the law against other offenders.—Ex-Governor Simon Boliver Buckner, to Chairman Henry B. Hines of the Democratic Committee.

WATCH out for campaign roarbacks from the Democrats. However, we'll not have another yarn from them about Caleb Powers. They've worked the Caleb Powers racket to the limit and as a vote-getter this argument is a Democratic back number.

IF, as you say, the Republican party is the common enemy of such a machine as I have feebly described, it should not be imputed to them as a crime, but commended as a cardinal virtue. And their assistance in an effort to overthrow an organization, which under the banner of the Democratic party is warring against every principle of Democracy, should be welcomed and applauded by every true Democrat and lover of his country. For until this machine is overthrown there can be no hope of resuscitating the life of true Democracy.—Ex-Governor Simon Boliver Buckner in letter to Chairman Hines of the Democratic Committee.

"I am a Democrat. If a majority of the Democrats are for whisky, I AM FOR WHISKY. If a majority of the Democrats are for temperance, I am for temperance."—S. W. Hager at Maysville October 5th.

DO YOU want BILL TAYLOR for United States Senator? If you do vote for VICE and SHANKLIN. If not, vote for GORE and DYE. There is where the choice comes.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Br'er Duley you ought to be fined and costed for such tommyrot and claptrap as threatening to run Bill Taylor for U. S. Senator. You knew, and you know, that the idea is utterly preposterous and is only a campaign joke out of the whole cloth.

Why not say that if Hager is elected Jim Hargis will be his appointee to the highest office within Hager's gifts, and that Curt Jett will be pardoned and made a member of the Hager household—say chief assassinator, and that Henry E. Youtsey will be the next Democratic Mayor of Frankfort—or Private Secretary to Gov. Hager?

You fellows are drawing the longbow with a vengeance, and Bill Goebel dead seems to be a better vote-getter than Bill Goebel living.

Just think what a ghastly and ghostly and weak and watery foundation a party must rest upon when it has no platform and no principles and relies solely upon the unhappy Goebel incident as a vote getter to endeavor to elect Hager to the high office of Governor of Kentucky!

Polly ticks, and is ticking loud, too.

If Willson and Cox should be elected, it would be quite cruel to Editor Walton. Wonder what he would do? He is already suffering with an acute case of the Goebel rabies. Ain't that enough?

MR. BECKHAM, if you so despise a Negro, why did you write that pleading and affectionate letter to Price Mays, a Negro voter down at Cadiz, Ky., urging him to support you in your race for Senator?—Ex-Governor Bradley.

THE esteemed Kentucky State Journal appears to be growing flighty in its dotage, and too much politics seems to have gone to its head. In one of its headlines it speaks of "kind words are more than cornets." You must have been dreaming of a political brass band, Br'er Walton.

EARTHQUAKES, snooks, riots, arrest and Policemen's clubs have no effect on "Aunt" CARRIE NATION. The old lady goes right along raising the devil every day in the week including Sundays and holidays. No wonder old Dr. NATION got a divorce. He ought to have a pension for enduring her as long as he did.

In re of the letter of Chairman Hines of the State Democratic Committee to General S. B. Buckner, the interest "climaxes," not in what Mr. Hines said to General Buckner, but in what General Buckner said to Mr. Hines. Old Confederates, which do you believe in most, such men as General Buckner, General Basil W. Duke, Colonel E. Polk Johnson and scores of other prominent Confederates, or Jim Hargis, murderer, Percy Haley, and Mr. Hager and South Trimble and Judge Lassing, Democratic expert machine politicians and election fixers? Added to all these, the Democratic Courier-Journal declares "Kentucky is the worst governed state in the Union."

As YOUR letter is an official communication and is in no sense confidential, I may give it publicity in order that not only you, but anyone else, if there be such, who may care to know my position, may learn some of the reasons which impel my action in casting my vote for the overthrow of a machine which has strangled the Democratic party, and whose constant violations of law and justice are spreading a contagion of lawlessness to the remotest limits of our fair Commonwealth. In imitation of the methods of the machine a veritable Sicillian Mafia has been organized in parts of the state. The toil of the farmer has been lost in the destruction of his growing crops, in the burning of his barns with their contents, in the dynamiting of his threshing machines. Yet no serious attempts have been made by the authorities to suppress these outrages; for officials chosen by fraud and violence are incapable of enforcing the law against other offenders. I am, sir, very truly, Your obt. svt.—Ex-Governor S. B. Buckner's reply to Hines.

ALL, BUT ENOUGH.

All their children were present, except Dr. Charles Holton of Richmond. The children present were—Mrs. John W. Cartmell of this city, Mr. Thomas Holton of Chicago and Henry W. Holton of Indianapolis, Ind. and a few near relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Holton are prominent and lovable people, successful in the material walks of life and prominent in all Church and benevolent affairs; Mr. Holton being the pioneer members of the Beasley Creek Christian Church congregation, the oldest Disciples Church in this county. Their legion of friends wish them long life and every blessing.

Many social affairs have been given this week in honor of Mrs. Millard Merz. She was always a favorite and no one will be missed more in the social circle. This evening Mrs. George Barbour will entertain in her honor.

Yesterday afternoon near Dover, hoboes stealing free transportation aboard of a C. and O. Eastbound freight, broke several large plate glass windows in a Pullman car attached to Westbound passenger train, due here at 2:32, by pelting the car with lumps of coal as the two trains were passing each other.

A wire from Dover notified Agent W. W. Wikoff of the outrage also instructions to have the men arrested on the arrival of the train at this point. Mr. Wikoff in turn notified Mayor Stallcup who immediately dispatched the Police to the Depot to intercept the culprits if possible.

When the train pulled into the yard the cars were searched without result. One man was seen to jump off the train at the gas plant, and was arrested shortly afterward. He gave his name as Oscar Fraly, and told conflicting stories. He said he lived in the East End, though he was an entire stranger to the Police force. He was jailed on suspicion. It is not known whether anyone on the train was hurt by missiles or broken glass. This is not the first occurrence of the kind, and if the guilty are caught they should be severely punished.

GAME AS A PEBBLE

Held Fast to the Reins Though His Life Was Imperiled

Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock pedestrians along East Third street witnessed a thrilling and exciting runaway and snashup that for a time looked as though it would end in a tragedy.

Mr. Benjamin Bedford, of Washington, was driving East in a buggy and when near Neptune Fire Hall the horse became fretful at the approach of a streetcar. In order to quiet the animal he turned North into Limestone street, and in turning, about to resume his course the buggy jammed against some structural iron piled in the street, the impact breaking the left hind wheel, causing the vehicle to become lopsided and spilling Mr. Bedford on the ground. At the same time horse began running and notwithstanding the man was flat on his back, he held tight to the lines and was dragged several hundred yards in that position before checking the flight of the horse and regaining his feet.

He was apparently unharmed, though his overcoat was torn from the bad usage it had received. The damage to the buggy consisted in a broken wheel, shaft and single-tree. The buggy was a new one having been purchased the day before from Mike Brown, the Second street merchant.

Mrs. Bedford had accompanied her husband to the city, but fortunately had alighted down town to do some shopping and no doubt thereby saved herself from serious if not fatal injury.

MACHINE FRAUD ROBBED GREENE OF NOMINATION.

Conversation Overheard By Democrat Between Judge Lassing and Robert L. Greene Tells How Latter's Place on Democratic Ticket Was Given to Chinn, Notwithstanding His Choice By Voters in Primary of 1901. Information Suppressed at Time For Fear of Disruption in the Party. Mott Ayres and Allie Young Figure in the Discreditable Tale.

Louisville Herald.

Further light has been thrown upon the methods of the Democratic machine, now seeking renewal of power at the hands of the people of Kentucky, that discloses the fraud to which Democrats themselves have been compelled to submit when seeking the endorsement of the citizens for place on their party ticket.

The information in the following story comes to The Herald from an unimpeachable source. It is given to the public now for the first time, and speaks for itself:

"A conversation which took place in Cincinnati on Thursday, October 10th, 1907, between Hon. Robert L. Greene of Frankfort, Ky., and Judge John M. Lassing was overheard by another Democrat. The substance of that conversation was as follows:

"That when the committee met to arrange for the Democratic primary to select a nominee for Clerk of the Court of Appeals in 1901, in arranging the ballot in the Clerk's race Mr. Greene's name was given first place, but after it was given to Mr. Mott Ayres to be printed Mr. Greene's name was changed and placed second on the ballot; that notwithstanding all the fraud that was committed throughout the state against Greene, the count of the votes showed that he was the nominee, but was defrauded out of it.

"The committee who had charge of the Democratic primary comprised Judge John M. Lassing, Mott Ayres and Judge Allie Young, these gentlemen having charge of the canvass of the vote, and that when the alleged attempt was made after it was shown that Mr. Greene was the nominee, to defraud him out of it, that he, Judge Lassing, protested, strenuously objected to and denounced the whole proceeding and insisted upon giving Mr. Greene his rights, but his protestation was of no avail. Mr. Chinn was declared the nominee.

"When Judge Lassing was asked why he did not tell Mr. Greene of this infamy, he said: 'If I had told you, you would have filed a contest against Chinn, which could have disrupted the Democratic party at that time.'

Old Coughs

Keep in close touch with your family doctor. No medicine was ever made that could take his place. Trust him at all times.

Old coughs, desperate coughs, rasping coughs, extremely perilous coughs, coughs that shake the whole body. It takes a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine, to master such coughs. A great many people rely on Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

NO CROP WINS

Resolutions Adopted Yesterday at Winchester By Tobacco Men

At the meeting of delegates of the Burley Tobacco Society at Winchester yesterday afternoon, resolutions were adopted to the effect that the District Board believed it would be wise for the Burley Growers of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia to grow no tobacco in 1908. It was also resolved that the Board recommend that each county take steps to induce growers of their counties to agree to grow no tobacco in 1908, and that a committee be appointed to prepare a suitable pledge to circulate among the delegates.

The vote on the resolutions stood twenty-eight for and one against the no-crop sentiment and one delegate did not vote at all.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney

MISS MARGARET TIERNEY

MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

A large proportion of the operations performed in our hospitals are upon women and girls for some organic trouble.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves, as every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pains at left or right of abdomen, backaches, nervous exhaustion, inflammation, ulceration, displacement, and other organic weaknesses.

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more cases of feminine ills than any other one remedy. Such letters as the following are constantly being received by Mrs. Pinkham to prove our claims. Mrs. C. A. Rockwood, teacher of Parliamentary Law, of 58 Free St., Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

"For years I suffered with female trouble. It was decided that an operation was necessary, and although I submitted to a serious operation my sufferings continued, until Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it proved a marvelous remedy, so quickly did it restore my health. I cannot thank you sufficiently for the good it has done me."

Miss Margaret Tierney, of No. 323 W. 25th Street, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "When only eighteen years of age our physician decided that an operation was necessary to permit of my womanly organs performing their natural functions. My mother objected and being urged by a relative to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did so. I soon improved in health, the proper conditions were established and I am well and strong, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other remedy has such unqualified endorsement as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other remedy in the world has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that may help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

Jim Hargis Pays Cash For Murder; Beckham's Special Judges Obey.

Courier-Journal.

Jim Hargis has sent his check for $5,600 to Mrs. James B. Marcum. This is "on account." He owes her $2,400 additional to discharge the debt which a jury in a civil case said he owed her for the pleasure he got out of the procurement of her husband's murder. The fun was not to be had altogether without expense, you see. The doughty Judge of Breathitt county just had to have it, even if it cost him a little money.

The payment on account calls attention once again to the anomalous situation Hargis holds. When tried on the criminal charge of procuring the death of Mr. Marcum, Hargis, by means of notorious manipulations of the law and the apparent connivance of certain public officials in high places, went acquit. The courts were made ridiculous. Despite the powerful evidence against Hargis he went free. It was a scandal and a disgrace—but wasn't he Jim Hargis?

According to criminal courts, guiltless as a babe and immune from punishment, the widow of his victim, nevertheless, obtained in a civil proceeding damages for the crime which the criminal courts said he did not commit. Hargis thus escapes the noose and a prison cell, but he is compelled to put up some cash for his frolic. As a matter of expediency, he is permitted to go free, although he must pay Mrs. Marcum for the loss of her husband. He is both innocent and guilty, concurrently and simultaneously.

In this we are treated to a delectable paradox. Also to one of the most disgusting demonstrations of political corruption and legal knavery a civilized people ever submitted to.

Read what a Maysville citizen says:

James D. Tolle, clerk at Wood Bros., meat market, and living at 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened and passages of the secretions were too frequent. There was also a burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and finding great benefit continued their use until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others."
